COCKAMAMIE CHARACTERS

issue #1

€ WELCOME!!! €

to Cockamamie Characters' inaugural publication! Inside you will be exposed to humor beyond reason. You will laugh long and you will laugh good. Over forty different artists contributed to CC, in what started as a comic jam at the Motor City Comic Convention. Artists were approached with nothing more than a character name and then asked to interpret, on paper, whatever that name sparked in their head. Some have signed their work, but unfortunately most did not, so I have no way of getting a copy of this out to them. Anyway, I thank all of the artists and I hope to see you all at the next convention!

I would also like to thank everyone who helped me come up with statistics: Dennis Petlock, Molly Brodak, Shane Oesting, Chris Bartholomew, and Mike Pippin. Extra thanks to Molly who also came up with a few of the character names and created two different cover designs, one for black and white and one for color!

Some of the characters in here have existed in short films and other publications I've done, so it was interesting to get a new perspective on what they might look like, and to come up with new backgrounds for them. Most, however, had never been drawn or even conceived of before the convention.

If you have a publication and would like to reprint any Cockamamie Characters, please write or e-mail me and I'd be glad to discuss the possibility—which is very likely. If you'd like to contribute to future Cockamamie Character zines, check out the center of this booklet for details. Or if you have any questions or comments, I'd like to hear those too. Thank you and enjoy!!!

If you've been enjoying Cockamamie Characters, then perhaps you should join in on the fun! Whether you're a seasoned artist or you've never picked up a pen before, your interpretation of a Cockamamie Character would be well appreciated. Rules are few: draw a character however its name inspires you to do so, please ink your drawings (pencil doesn't copy well), draw no larger than the boxes seen in this book (1/4 of 8.5 x 11 inches), and have a good time! I am looking for drawings only, not the statistics. The sooner you mail them, the sooner the next Cockamamie Characters will be out. Everyone who submits will receive a free copy of the finished product.

The following is a list of Cockamamie Characters which has been compiled by Joe Hornacek, Jerry White Jr., Dan Augustine, and many others. Feel free to do as many as you like, although I can't guarantee all will be used. I will, however, use at least one drawing by each contributor. I realize that doubles or triples of each character may occur, but that will not deter me from using them. The mailing address is on the inside cover and this list continues on the last page. Hope to hear from you soon!
